

WORKLAB GENERAL CONFERENCE

THEME: FUTURE WORKERS' MUSEUMS — CREATIVITY IN TIMES OF CRISIS?

📍 NORRKÖPING, SWEDEN

📅 DECEMBER 10-12

TUESDAY DECEMBER 10

- 17.30 Welcome Reception, welcome note by Niklas Cserhalmi, Museum of Work, Norrköping
- 18.15 - 19.00 Guided tour in the Industrial landscape

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 11

- 09.00 - 09.10 Conference Registration at The Museum of Work
- 09.10 - 09.15 Welcome and practical information
- 09.15 - 09.25 Welcome Address by Søren Bak-Jensen, Workers Museum, Copenhagen, Chairman, WORKLAB General Assembly
- 09.25 - 10.15 Keynote: Listening for moments of shared authority in archived interviews with Finnish migrant-workers – Malin Thor Tureby, Professor in History at Malmö University
- 10.15 - 10.35 Coffee break
- 10.35 - 12.05 SESSION 1
- 10.35 - 11.05 Work in Progress: A co-creative approach to exhibit redesign – Tara Bursey, Executive Director, Workers Arts & Heritage Centre, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada
- 11.05 - 11.35 Disrupting the Authorized Heritage Discourse: Unveiling the Under-Represented Narratives of Miners, Migrants and "Others" – Evinç Doğan, Department of Tourism Administration, Boğaziçi University, Turkey
- 11.35 - 12.05 What is a workers' assembly hall without an assembly of workers? Capturing and communicating the (im)material heritage of the Workers' Assembly Hall in Copenhagen – Søren Bak-Jensen, director Workers Museum, Copenhagen
- 12.05 - 13.00 Lunch

ARBETETS
MUSEUM
MUSEUM OF WORK

WORKLAB GENERAL CONFERENCE

THEME: FUTURE WORKERS' MUSEUMS — CREATIVITY IN TIMES OF CRISIS?

📍 NORRKÖPING, SWEDEN

📅 DECEMBER 10-12

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 11

13.00 - 15.00 SESSION 2

- 13.00 - 13.30 When the analog past is challenged by the digital present – the digital transformation of trade union magazines collection – Rasmus Ravnholdt Johnsen, librarian at The Workers Museum in Copenhagen
- 13.30 - 14.00 Strategies for Digital Knowledge Transfer in the Context of the Changing Nature of Work in Technical Monuments and Museums with Demonstration Sites in Germany – Konrad Gutkowski, research associate at LWL Industrial Museum, Dortmund
- 14.00 - 14.20 Coffee break
- 14.20 - 14.50 3D digitizing of cultural heritage – what's the gain for industrial sites? – Marinette Fogde, Head of Research, Pelle Filipsson and Sophie Gudmann Knutsson, Curator at The Museum of Work
- 15.10 - 16.00 Guided tour to The Museum of Works' Current Exhibitions
- 16.00 - 17.00 WORKLAB General Assembly
- 19.00 Dinner at Enoteket

THURSDAY DECEMBER 12

09.30 - 12.00 SESSION 3

- 09.30 - 10.00 Labour's Memory – an infrastructure for research in global trade union history – Silke Neunsinger, affiliated researcher at Uppsala university and research coordinator at Swedish Labour Movement's Archives and Library
- 10.00 - 10.30 Can museums be socially relevant without contributing to polarization? – Niklas Cserhalmi, Director, The Museum of Work
- 10.30 - 10.45 Coffee break
- 10.45 - 11.15 Notorious Name: Experiences from Risk Management at the Lenin Museum – Kalle Kallio, Director, The Finnish Labour Museum
- 11.15 - 12.00 Panel discussion
- 12.05 - 12.15 Concluding remarks by Irena Marusic

ARBETETS
MUSEUM
MUSEUM OF WORK